

Have you ever read the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) or understood the history leading up to ANCSA? This course provides an overview of ANCSA and the organizations it created or influenced over the past 50 years. BA A202 reviews the journey to ANCSA, the Act itself, and the various Alaska Native organizations influenced by the passage of ANCSA.

The course includes insights into various Alaska Native organization missions, goal-setting strategies and management approaches. Guest speakers from various organizations are included.

Who should take this course:

- Students who plan to live and work in Alaska. Understanding ANCSA and Alaska Native organizations is essential to understanding the Alaska business landscape.
- Students who need to meet their Alaska Native-Themed General Education Requirement. BA A202 satisfies this requirement.
- Students who want a better understanding of the unique qualities of Alaska's unique approach to Alaska Native land claims.

BA A202 ALASKA NATIVE ORGANIZATIONS*
SPRING 2022 – WEB BASED COURSE

Instructor: Sharon Guenther Lind, MBA, Ph.D.

CRN: 32241 – 3 credits

Tuesday's 5:30 to 8:15 p.m. via Distance Ed (Zoom)

January 10 – April 30, 2022

This course satisfies the Alaska Native-Themed General Education Requirement.*

Sign up for our BA A202 Alaska Native Organizations class, taught by Sharon Guenther Lind at JAONLINE.

SIGN UP TODAY FOR ALASKA NATIVE ORGANIZATIONS!

UAA College of Business and Public Policy

Alaska Native
Business Management

Spring 2022

BA A202
Alaska Native
Organizations

Instructor:

Sharon Guenther Lind

CRN: 32241

QUESTIONS?

Contact

Sharon Guenther Lind at 907-786-0608 or email her
at: SGLind@alaska.edu